Local Group Receives Top Honors

The Rocks Quartet of Appomattox County came home as proud winners of first runner-up in the Mid-Carolinas Singing Convention.

This was a regional contest with 25 groups competing and coming from as far as Beckley, W. Va., down through South Carolina into Tennessee with North Carolina and Virginia included.

It was a contest of semi-professionals in gospel singing. This was the sixth annual meeting of this convention, always being held on Memorial Day weekend. This year it was held at Four Oaks, N.C., a town east of Raleigh, N.C. It has been a regional convention in the past, but next year, in 1977, it will be elevated to National Status.

The Rocks Quartet, who will co-host the convention in 1977, says "Praise God and give thanks to Him".

Boy Scout Fund Drive Tops Goal

The Appomattox County Boy Scout Fund Drive went over the top of the goal of $2500 for the first time ever. As of Tuesday of this week a total of $2502.75 had been received toward the goal, thus putting our county over the top.

Scouting in any area has to be a community effort with the support of the citizens backing it, and Morgan stated that he was well pleased with the real community effort shown in our county. We have excellent leaders in both Cub Scouts and in Boy Scout Troops, both are doing a real fine job and scouting in our area is really growing. Morgan says he would like to also thank Carol Taylor and Etta O'Brien for their special assistance in letter writing and making phone calls for the fund drive.
